

Disabled Students' Allowance (DSA) Disability Evidence Form

About this form

To get DSA, a medical professional (for example your GP) needs to provide evidence of your disability on this form. You only need to ask them to do this if it's your first year of applying for DSA or you have a new diagnosis which will require further assessment.

Don't fill in this form if you have a specific learning disability. Instead you need to send us a diagnostic report from a suitably qualified psychologist, educational professional or specialised teacher.

What you need to do

Fill in your details in Section A in CAPITAL letters using black ink.

Then pass the form to the medical professional to fill in, sign and date the declaration.

Once they have filled in the form, make sure you submit this to us with your DSA application.
